THE RAILWAY COMMISSIONER.

It will be seen from the dispatches that Hon. A. J. Turner, of Portage, the present Chief Clerk of the Senate, was nominated this morning by Governor Smith, for Railway Commissioner, and that the appointment was quickly and unanimously confirmed. While this nomination may cause some surprise, it will be warmly and very generally endorsed by the leading men in the State. Mr. Turner is well-known throughout Wisconsin. He has been a resident of the State about twenty-two years, and for a greater part of that time, in connection with S. S. Brannan, has been editor and publisher of the State Register, one of the best political newspapers in the State. He was a member of the Assembly in 1863, '64, '66 and '69, and is now serving his third term as Chief Clerk of the Senate. For four or five years he was the compiler of the Blue Book, and was the first to give it its present value as a work of reference concerning historical, biographical, and statistical information pertaining to Wisconsin. He may be properly called the father of the Legislative Manual. He is forty three years old, and as a statistician, he has hardly an equal in the State; and as regards state affairs, it is safe to say that none are better informed than he. He has the industry and the ability to make a useful Railway Commissioner, and one may be assured that his reports will contain more valuable information regarding railways and their management, than any report published in this State. The unanimity with which the appointment was confirmed, shows how highly he is esteemed by the Senate.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction will soon be issued from the press, and will contain many interesting facts relative to the public schools of this State. We are glad to note that Superintendent Whitford is opposed to the Madison School book scheme. The scheme is not one which will benefit parents and teachers. It is one which is designed to benefit a few persons at Madison who expect to get a "fat job" should the bill become a law. The scheme smacks so much of a private enterprise, that its passage through both houses of the Legislature is impossible. Concerning the text-book problem, the Superintendent says:

In our existing text-book laws is to be found substantially all that is needed for the prompt removal of whatever grounds of just complaint yet remain respecting the cost, the unnecessary changes, and the want of uniformity of text-books.

Section 53 of the school code makes it the duty of every district board to select and adopt a list of books to be used in each branch of study pursued in the school under their care, and forbids any change of books within a period of three years after adoption.

Chapter 215, of the general laws of 1875, authorizes districts, towns, villages, and cities, to purchase text-books, to be the property of the district, town, etc., so purchasing, and to be loaned to pupils or otherwise furnished to them under such conditions and regulations as the school authorities may prescribe.

The Superintendent says that the advantages of free text-books guaranteed by the law are now becoming more widely known and better appreciated, and are exerting an influence in lessening the cost of school books. For this reason no new law is needed, especially not a law so unjust, tyrannical and iniquitous, as the bill which bears a lie upon its face—"To cheapen the cost of supporting the common schools of the State." The recommendations of the Superintendent are as follows:

I can recommend no change in, or addition to, existing text-book legislation, likely to be of any advantage, save perhaps the lengthening to five years of the period during which no change in text-books is allowed after a list has been adopted. Several intelligent county superintendents who are fully sensible of the advantages of the plan of district purchase, advise that this plan be made mandatory by law instead of permissive, that every district be required not only to adopt a list of books, but to purchase and keep on hand a supply sufficient for the constant needs of the school, the books being furnished to pupils free or otherwise, as the electors may determine.

According to the report there are 5,320 school houses in the State, which have a seating capacity of 345,944, and during the year 1877, the school attendance was 291,270. The whole number of districts in the State is 5,564. The number of children reported between the ages of 4 and 20, is given at 478,388, which shows that there were 187,000 children who did not attend school during the year. This fact induces the Superintendent to favor a system of compulsory education. The schools gave employment to 6,571 teachers during the past year, and the average wages per month of male teachers was $40.48, and of female teachers, $26.35.

THE RETURNING BOARD.

The indictment and the arrest of the Louisiana Returning Board, is a matter of so much importance that it was discussed in a Cabinet meeting yesterday. Of course nothing could be done for any individual member of the Board, and the Cabinet decided that the Federal Government had no power or authority to step between them and the State courts. The members of the Board are charged with perjury and with making false returns when canvassing the vote for President in 1876. Whether they will be convicted or not, is not absolutely certain, but considering the bitter prejudice against them, there are chances that they may be found guilty. Wells is probably in Washington by this time, and will lay the matter before the President. He seeks the protection of the Government, and even demands that the President shall save him from the hands of his enemies in Louisiana. He not only goes this far, but he threatens that if Mr. Hayes does not give him protection, he will turn State's evidence against General Garfield, Secretary Sherman, Senator Matthews, and other members of the Republican Committee who went to New Orleans in behalf of Hayes, to see that the count was correctly made. Although it is reported that Wells has made these threats, yet the report must be received with a good deal of allowance. Every one who closely observed the proceedings of the Republican Committee during the electoral contest in Louisiana, knows that there can be no truth in the statement that they acted otherwise than honorable, and that no undue influence was sought to be exerted over the Returning Board by the Committee, to induce the Board to give the electoral vote to Hayes.

If J. Madison Wells and the other members of the Board are innocent, and are tried by a jury which is not packed, of course they need not fear a conviction. Counsel of acknowledged ability will be employed to defend them, and as the trial will be public, and the proceedings phonographically reported, there is hardly a probability that a court and jury would dare to convict them against law and evidence. If the Board are innocent of any crime in making the returns, and they declare they are, it is with bad grace that they threaten to turn State's evidence and thus attempt to disgrace the Republican Committee. If Wells and his friends have any disclosures to make let them make them on the trial, no matter whom they implicate, whether a Secretary of the Treasury, a United States Senator or a Member of Congress. The Republican party is as much interested as the Democratic party in knowing the whole truth regarding the Louisiana Returning Board. If they are guilty, the country should know it; if the charge brought against them is the fruit of Democratic hate, the country should know that, also.

A dispatch from Washington says the Democratic majority in the House Committee on Elections seem to be acting on the theory that no Republicans were elected to Congress. They seated Patterson from Colorado, who had not a shadow of claim to the seat. They have decided to overrule the decision of the courts and seat the Democratic contestant from California; and now, as they cannot find an excuse to seat a Democrat who wants Rainey's place from South Carolina, they will recommend the passage of a resolution declaring that there was no election. Rainey's majority was over 3,000, notwithstanding the White League, and his district has given him as high as 9,000 majority.

On Tuesday Frank Leslie, the well known publisher, was in Washington, and dined with the President at the White House. In the afternoon he and his wife started for their home in New York, and when in Philadelphia, the train was boarded by a posse of constables who had a warrant for the arrest of Leslie on a charge of libel. The raid on him caused quite a sensation in the car as well as a lively scuffle, the constables, however, gaining their point. At midnight Leslie was roaming about the city for bail. Luckily some kind friend saved him from going to jail. The warrant was sworn out by one Wrigley, a lawyer, whose arrest under very similar circumstances, Leslie caused last summer.

It seems that the discussion of the question of eternal punishment has workedmarvelously on Justice Clifford, of the Supreme Court. On Wednesday he surprised the Democrats and everybody else by accepting an invitation to dine at the White House. He has been one of the most bitter in assailing the title of President Hayes, and has declined to call at the White House with the rest of the Supreme Bench on occasions of ceremony. Repentence at the eleventh hour is better than no repentence.

In the Assembly this morning a bill was introduced which provides that the Secretary of State shall act as Railway Commissioner without extra compensation, except for mileage when actually traveling on business connected with that department of his office. It may safely be asserted that the bill will not become a law.

General Sherman has been interviewed in regard to compelling officers of the army to wear their uniforms at all times. He said while they were among gentlemen they should wear them, but when associating with Congressmen or when visiting bar-rooms, he thought they ought not to wear them.

Senator Cameron, of this State, offered an amendment to the Bland bill yesterday, making it 420 grains and 900 fine, the same as the trade dollar. This is a move in the right direction. If the "coming dollar" could be made to contain 420 grains, the Bland bill would be more popular than ever.

The President has appointed as honorary commissioners to the Paris Exposition, from this State, J. G. Thorpe, of Eau Claire, and Robert H. Baker, of Racine. From Nevada, he has named J. W. Mackey, the silver king.

The dispatches have it that J. Madison Wells, of the Louisiana Returning Board, who was fleeing to Washington for protection from criminal prosecution, was arrested last night in Virginia, as a fugitive from justice.

The report in Washington that Secretary Sherman and Senator Matthews were indicted at New Orleans, is not confirmed. It is not believed in Washington.

It is reported that the President is now anxious to get on the right side of Senator Conkling. That side in Conkling, is not so easily found.

A bill passed the Senate this morning providing for the election of two additional Justices of the Supreme Court.

LEGISLATURE.

Bills and Memorials Introduced in the Senate.

Hon. A. J. Turner Nominated for Railway Commissioner.

He is Unanimously Confirmed by the Senate.

Chas. E. Bross, of Madison, is the Prominent Candidate for Chief Clerk of the Senate.

FROM MADISON.

Special dispatch to the Janesville Gazette.
MADISON, January 31, 1878.
SENATE.

A memorial to Congress asking for a tri-weekly mail route from Whitehall to Eau Claire was introduced.

Bills were introduced for the inspection of boilers and licensing engineers.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

A Two-Thirds Vote—The Compromise Silver Dollar.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The statement is made that, under the Constitution, the two-thirds vote necessary to pass any bill over a veto is two-thirds of the members elected, and that 195 votes, which is two-thirds of the entire membership, 292, would consequently be necessary to pass the bill in the House. The vote on the Matthews resolution yesterday was only 185. This statement of constitutional law is incorrect. The more experienced parliamentarians say that it has been repeatedly decided that the constitutional two-thirds of a quorum. Stanley Matthews, referring to the proposed efforts to make a compromise on the silver bill by uniting on a silver dollar of 420 grains, says: "I am most certain that the amendment reported from the Committee on Finance, giving the Government the benefit of coinage, together with a limitation of the monthly coinage to not more than $4,000,000 nor less than $2,000,000, will be adopted. As to a compromise being made on the number of grains to compose the silver dollar, that is scarcely possible. Propositions to unite on the silver dollar of 420 grains have been made. Those who are opposed to remonetization, seeing that the passage of the silver bill is inevitable, have shown a willingness to unite on a silver dollar which shall contain enough grains of silver to make it an equivalent for gold. None of them have specified the exact number of grains they desire to compose the compromise dollar.

SALARIES.

A Bill Regulating the Pay of Fourth Class Postmasters.

Washington, Jan. 30.—A bill for the regulation of postmasters' salaries which was prepared at the Postoffice Department and introduced by Senator Ferry, provides that the compensation of postmasters of the fourth class, that is, those who are not paid stated salaries, shall be the whole of the box rents collected at their offices, and commissions on unpaid letter-postage collected, on amounts received from waste paper, dead newspapers, printed matter, and twine sold, and on postage-stamps, stamped envelopes, postal-cards, and newspaper and periodical stamps canceled as postages on matter actually mailed at their offices, at the following rate, namely: On the first $100 or less per quarter, 60 per centum; on all over $100 and not over $300 per quarter, 50 per centum; and on all over $300 per quarter, 40 per centum; the same to be ascertained and allowed by the Auditor in the settlement of accounts of such postmasters, upon their sworn quarterly returns: Provided, That when the compensation of any postmaster of this class shall reach $1,000 per annum, exclusive of commissions or money-order business, and when the returns to the Auditor for four quarters shall show him to be entitled to a compensation in excess of that amount under section 3 of this act, the Auditor shall report such fact to the Postmaster General, who shall assign him to his proper class, and fix his salary as provided by said section.

CHANDLER AND HAYES.

An Open Letter from An Iowa Man to W. E. Chandler.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—O. D. Eno, of Northwood, Iowa, writes an open letter to the Hon. W. E. Chandler through The Inter-Ocean, in which he affirms it is but justice to the Republican party which "Mr. Chandler claims to represent, that the latter's recent statement should receive a notice from those to whom it is addressed." Mr. Eno says: "If the spirit of your (Mr. Chandler's) letter is the spirit of Republicanism in New Hampshire, it can hardly be said to be the spirit of more than the scum of Republicanism in Iowa. The animus of your wholesale charges upon the course pursued by President Hayes, shows that your resignation as a member of the National Committee of the Republican party would be very acceptable." Mr. Eno discusses at some length the lateness of the hour when Mr. Chandler's letter was published, and concludes his communication as follows: "Iowa Republicans believe in a party, and a very large portion, I think, are satisfied with the President's motto. 'He who serves his country first, serves his party best.'"

NEW ORLEANS.

Rumors Concerning the Indictment of Matthews and Sherman—Wells' Whereabouts.

Washington, Jan. 30.—A telegram from New Orleans to Congressman Ellis was passed around the House to-day, stating that Secretary Sherman and Stanley Matthews had been indicted for conspiracy in connection with the Returning Board, but for lack of corroboration is not generally credited. Matthews is attending a dinner party, and cannot be seen; but Secretary Sherman states that he has heard nothing of the kind but the rumor, and asserts, with emphasis, that he does not believe it. A rumor is in circulation here also that J. Madison Wells was captured at Petersburg, Va., while en route to Washington. This is contradicted by a telegram from Petersburg. The Louisiana Republicans are very reticent about Wells' whereabouts, and if they know they will not tell. Telegrams to him in care of Kellogg have been received here for two days.

ICE HARVEST.

Watertown, Wis., Jan. 30.—The Washington Ice Company, of Chicago, are here with a large gang of men cutting ice on Rock River for their Chicago ice-houses. A wooden tramway a quarter of a mile long carries the ice in blocks to the Chicago & Northwestern Railway track, where the crystal cakes are packed in cars and transported to the Garden City. The company are shipping about fifty cars a day from this point. They pronounce Watertown ice the best they have seen between here and Chicago. The ice is now about twelve inches thick, of a pure, clear quality. The Washington Company expect to work here all winter, and have commenced the erection of an ice-house on the railroad track capable of holding some 10,000 tons.

THE NORTHWESTERN.

The Annual Election of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Milwaukee, Jan. 30—The annual election of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company to-day resulted in the re-election of the trustees whose terms had expired, except in the case of Allis, resigned; Peter Van Vechten, of this city, and C. D. Davidson, of Louisville, Ky., in whose places William Orton, of New York, Peyton S. Davidson, of La Crosse, and Albert Conro, of this city, were chosen. The officers remain the same as last year.

SUICIDE.

Kalamazoo, Jan. 30.—Frank Andrews, a young man of good reputation in this village, attempted suicide to-day. He went home this morning, saying to his family, "Don't be surprised if I should be a corpse before night," and laid down. Symptoms of poisoning, by strychnine were soon discovered, and medical attendance secured. At this writing the young man is having violent spasms, with little or no hopes of recovery. Domestic infelicity is the cause. He left a note imploring his friends not to relieve him, that he wanted to die.

TEMPERANCE.

The Murphy Movement in St. Louis—Twelve Thousand Pledges.

St. Louis, Jan. 30.—The Murphy movement is making marked headway here, the various meetings being very successful. The churches are taking up the work and apostles of the cold water cause are springing up in all quarters of the city, and find no lack of followers. It is estimated that 12,000 have signed the pledge since the inception of the movement here. In suburban places the cause is gaining even a larger proportion of adherents.

A MOTHER WANTED.

La Crosse, Wis., Jan. 30— This morning the body of a female infant, evidently born about six hours, was found wrapped in a copy of the The Chicago Tribune, in Paul's lumber-yard, on the river bank. The coroner's inquest developed the fact that the infant was born dead. No clue to the mother.

COMMISSIONERS.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The President has appointed the following honorary commissioners to the Paris Industrial Exhibition: Alexander McLeod of Delaware: Joseph G. Thorpe and Robert H. Baker, Wisconsin, and John W. Mackey and W. S. Keys, Nevada.

LOGGERS.

Neillsville, Wis., Jan. 28.—The men are begining to come out of the woods. Two large crews came out this morning, and probably there will be more in a few days if there is no snow.

THE WAR.

No Definite News from the Turkish Peace Commissioners.

Rumors that They will not Accept the Russian Demands.

The War Party on the Move in the English Parliament.

Negotiating with Austria, for Joint Action.

THE WAR.

No News from the Envoys—Rumors—Negotiations with Austria—The Action of the British Cabinet.

London, Jan. 31—6 a. m.—Still no news from the Turkish envoys, and no conclusion of peace. Rumors are numerous of course, but are indefinite and contradictory. One thing, however, is certain that the delay is caused by refusal of the Turkish plenipotentiaries to accept the Russian conditions. There is open telegraphic communication between Kezanlik and Constantinople; yet no information can be obtained from them relative to the terms offered or their reason for not signing the armistice.

Interest here centres in to-night's debate in Parliament and it may continue several days. In addition to the amendment telegraphed you yesterday, to be proposed by the Liberals, there will be one from the genuine war party to the effect that the time has arrived for immediate action, and that the Government be requested to put the army and navy on a war footing.

It is stated that the Government is ready and able to conclude negotiations with Austria for joint action in opposition to Russia as soon as a vote of credit is obtained. It is represented that Austria declines to form such a combination unless Parliament puts itself on record as supporting the present Ministry. It is impossible to tell whether this report is true, or only a sharp trick to catch votes for the Ministerial policy.

Rev. Talmage on Congress.

Washington was never in so good a moral condition as it is now. I saw less dissipation than at any other time. The Senate and House of Representatives have in them more men whose cheek and eye indicate good habits that I have ever seen before. In both houses the moral tone, judging from appearance and utterance, is better. The bad old politicians that sat in the councils of the nation are nearly all dead, I am happy to say. They were beyond reformation, and a new race of men have taken possession. Many of those old ones died of delirium tremens, their obituary styling it "exhaustion from public service," the red monument on the end of their nose giving way to the white marble shaft that tells their virtues to the skies. There is as much talent to-day in Congressional circles as there ever was, notwithstanding all the cant heard here on this subject in the opposite direction. Once in a while now a member murders the King's English, but it used to amount to a massacre! Many of the members used to write the pronoun "I" with a small letter dotted, not through any overwhelming modesty at their magnificence, but because they thought it accurate, and it took one of my friends, now a retired stenographer, until after midnight to quell the riot of adverbs, participles, adjectives and verbs in many of the harangues of celebrated members; and he made his fortune by mending broken speeches. In your Senate and House of Representatives to-day there are men so profoundly learned, as severely logical, as magnetically eloquent as were ever seen there since the Government was founden. Let the comparatively youthful men of our National Legislature become as old as their predecessors and they will be as famous.

An Office-Seeker's Experience.

The Washington Post tells of a young Westener who went to the capital in October to get a clerkship, and soon found that he had undertaken a work that would require time for its completion. An examination of his finances satisfied him that he had no money to waste. He left his elegant room at a first-class hotel and took a cheaply furnished apartment in an unaristocratic neighborhood, for which he paid only $6 a month. He cut down his bill of fare to bread, milk and fruit, and satisfied his appetite at a cost of twenty cents a day. Meantime, with good clothes and cheerful looks, he pushed for an appointment, and, after many disappointments, achieved success in two and a half months from the time of his arrival. Had he followed the usual custom of expensive living, his money would have given out in two or three weeks; then he would have subsisted for a time on his wardrobe, and becoming too shabby for appearance in good society, would have been driven to appeal for charity to help him back, crushed and woe-begone, to his old home.

A Dream Fulfilled.

From the Springfield Mass., Republican.

A Curious story is told of how J. L. Bragg, of Canaan, dreamed on the night of the recent disaster on the railroad, near Tariffville, Conn., that he saw a man at work upon the bridge taking off the nuts from the end of the iron rods, till, hearing the whistling of the approaching train, he ran off, and the next moment Mr. Bragg heard in his dream the cars go plunging down into the river, heard the cries of the wounded and saw the struggles of the dying; all in affright he awoke and also awakened his wife who slept by his side. He asked her if the train had come in yet. She did not know. Mr. Bragg said: "It has not come, and will not come to-night. The bridge at Tariffville has been tampered with, and the train has been wrecked." So positive was he that a disaster had occurred, that he dressed and went to the depot, where the station-master informed him that the train was overdue and told of his dream.

Wouldn't Spoil a Witness.

The plaintiff in a case before a recent term of the district court was somewhat disturbed on learning that a certain individual, whose reputation for veracity was none of the best, was to be a witness for the defendant. The fellow's capacity for false swearing was notorious, and unless his integrity was shaken, plaintiff's case was a "gone goose." He hied himself to a brother litigant, and asked him if he would believe the witness under oath. "No," was the reply. "You know he is a liar." "Yes." "A thief." "Yes." "Disreputable in every particular." "Yes." "Well, I want you to go on the stand and swear to your belief." The friend's countenance became troubled, and he replied: "My dear fellow, I would do you almost any favor, but, you see, I have got him employed as a witness for myself next week.—Eureka, Nev., Sentinel.

Geo. R. Peck Re-Appointed.

We notice that Hon. Geo. R. Peck has been nominated by the President for re-appointment to the office of United States District Attorney for Kansas. Mr. Peck has filled that office for four years last past, so well, so faithfully, and with such marked ability, that a failure to re-appoint him would have been unjust to him and unfortunate to the public service.

As this was his home when appointed four years ago we doubtless feel a peculiar personal interest in him, but we are sure that all over the State Mr. Peck has made hosts of friends who would have felt deep regret if he had not been continued in that position which he has adorned by his talents as well as his strict integrity. His re-appointment is a just recognition of the services of an able and faithful officer, and, at the same time, a wise thing for the Government.

When the united Kansas delegation in Congress called upon Mr. Devens, to ask Mr. Peck's re appointment, the Attorney-General replied: "Gentlemen, I had already concluded to appoint Mr. Peck. His name has already been sent to the President. His record secured his retention in office, without outside influence." This is a compliment of which "our George" may well feel proud.—South Kansas Tribune.

Stamps for a Home.

An exchange tells a story of the method by which a New York gentleman recently obtained the privilege of living at the St. Lukes home for women. It takes just $300 to buy a home for life in the home. The old lady had seen better days, and still had many acquaintances among well-to-do people who did not turn their backs on her in her age and want. It was in October last that the old lady made application to the gentleman for aid. He asked her if she was willing to make an effort to help herself. She was willing, but what could she do? Could she collect one million old postage stamps for $300 to purchase a home? She would try, and went to work. She went to many old friends who enlisted their efforts and influence in her cause with great spirit. Old postage stamps for an old woman to live on were easy to obtain. The enterprise became the sole labor and delight of several influential ladies, and many heavy business houses joined interests in the cause.

The other day the thing was done. It was found that the collection amounted to one million and five thousand old stamps. They were put up in packages of one hundred, and by close packing were compressed into a Saratoga trunk. And so the old lady purchased her home and was happy. She collected over three hundred thousands of stamps with her own hands, and in ten weeks the enterprise succeeded so well that the gentleman offered another home for another million of stamps to be placed at the disposal of two benevolent ladies, the home to be given to the most deserving person known to them. The old stamps are to be sent to Europe for the manufacture of papiermache goods, for which purpose their qualities of paper and gum are good.

Interesting Incident.

A correspondent of the Albany Journal relates the following of Captain Alfred E. Lee, and who was Gov. Hayes' private secretary, and who has bee appointed Consul General at Frankfort:

"Captain Lee was left for dead on the field of Gettysburg. Professor McCabe had prepared an elaborate funeral sermon for him, for he was greatly loved in Delaware, Ohio; and it was to be delivered on the Sunday at commencement week in that sad but glorious July. The night before, at sunset, a pale, crippled figure alighted quietly from the train at Delaware depot, and walked on crutches to the nearest hotel, taken an unostentatious room, as suited his humble means, and little knowing that the manuscript of his funeral oration lay in the gifted professor's drawer. Sunday morning he devoutly repaired to the church, which was full to overflowing, and the few who saw him come in, and gathered around him, managed to convey the tidings to the sacred desk, and with the versatility of our Methodist friends, the funeral occasion, with scarcely any interruption was changed to an enthusiastic missionary meeting; and when the call was made for contributions, this pale young soldier rose, leaning on his crutches, and said softly, for he was veay weak from loss of blood: 'In token of gratitude to God for having spared my life upon the field of Gettysburg eight days ago, I give my name for a hundred dollars.'"

Dr. Newman's Stewardship.

Washington Post.

It is stated by the well-informed that the Rev. Dr. J. P. Newman will, under the rules of his church, be obliged to sever his connection with the Metropolitan on the 1st of March next. It is understood that his mantle is likely to fall upon the shoulders of either the Rev. Dr. Peck, of Baltimore, or the Rev. Dr. Abbott, of New York, with the chances in favor of the first. It is not now known to what church Dr. Newman will be assigned. It is certain that powerful members prefer that he should remain.

MAGNOLIA STORE

Being desirous of changing my business and place of residence, I offer my STORE at Magnolia Corners for Sale; also my house and lot, convenient to the store. The lot contains about three acres well covered with Fruit trees, etc., consisting of about 70 Apple trees, in bearing (this orchard has produced 200 bushels in one season), in very good condition; Cherry trees, Siberian and Russian Crabs, a half dozen Pear trees, very thrifty Currants, Gooseberries, Raspberries, of different varieties, Strawberries and Grapes. I should prefer to sell the stock with the store. Will sell very cheap for cash, or on easy terms for good paper. Will sell store and stock alone if purchaser desires. It is a good point for country trade, but I have interests elsewhere that require my personal attention. J. F. HOWARD.

Dr. V. CLARENCE PRICE
—HAS—
Visited Janesville
EIGHTEEN YEARS.
HAS met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all
Chronic Diseases
—OF THE—
THROAT,
LUNGS,
HEART,
STOMACH,
LIVER.
Head, nerves, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood affections of the urinary organs, gravel, scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, &c.
Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice.
My practice not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.
DR. V. CLARENCE PRICE
Can be consulted at JANESVILLE, MYERS HOUSE, Saturday and Sunday, the 2d and 3d of March, 1878.
Patients will address all letters to Dr. V. Clarence Price, Waukegan, Ill., with stamp.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORS.

Some Interesting Biographical Sketches of Those Who have Filled the Office of Lieutenant-Governor.

Col. J. A. Watrous, of Fond du Lac contributes to the Appeal the following interesting biographical notices of the men who have been Lieutenant-Governors of Wisconsin:

Wisconsin's Lieutenant-Governors constitute a groupe of some interest, to Badgers anyway. John E. Holmes, who located at Jefferson in 1843, and who was a member of the Territorial Council in 1847, was the first Lieutenant-Governor. In 1852, he was in the Assembly and being a lawyer of marked ability, was a valuable member of that body in the early history of our existence as a State. He went into the army as quartermaster of Col. Utley's regiment, the 22d; was made a prisoner, harshly treated, as were most prisoners, and the day after landing at Annapolis, exchanged, and when within two or three days of his home, died; and the name of John E. Homes, Wisconsin's first Lieutenant-Governor, is recorded with the thousands of brave, self-sacrificing, patriotic men who left home, friends, society, comforts and safety that they might add their strength in preventing the downfall of the Republic.

S. W. Beall, the second Lieutenant-Governor, was an extensive farmer who resided at Taycheedah, three and a half miles northeast of Foud du Lac, a place which, thirty years or more ago, was contesting with Fond du Lac for the county seat. Governor Beall entered the army early in 1862 as Lieutenant-Colonel of the 18th Wisconsin, of which James S. Alban, of Plover, was Colonel. At the battle of Shiloh Col. Alban was killed and Lieut-Col. Beall seriously wounded. Capt. Gabe Bouck, of the Second Regiment, was promoted colonel, a fact which very naturally had something to do in causing the resignation of Lieut-Col. Beall to be sent in. In 1867 or 1868 Gov. Beall was appointed Surveyor General of Montana. Between himself and G. M. Pinney, who has cut such a prominent figure in San Francisco the past year, much bad blood had come to the surface, and resulted in the fatal shooting of the Govern r by Pinney.

Timothy Burns, of La Crosse, a farmer, served from Jan. 1st, 1852, until Sept. 21st, 1853, the date of his death.

James T. Lewis, of Columbus, was elected as a Democrat, with Barstow, serving during the years 1854 and 1855. Mr. Lewis represented Columbia county in the Assembly in 1852. The fall of that year he was elected to the Senate, but served only during one session because of his election as Lieutenant Governor. The fall of 1861 he was elected Secretary of State as a Republican, serving one term. The fall of 1863 he was elected Governor. He has been chairman of several Republican State conventions. Gov. Lewis is still a respected resident of Columbus.

Judge Arthur McArthur was elected from Milwaukee in 1855, with Coles Bashford, and made a very much better Lieutenant Governor than Bashford did Governor. He has served as Circuit Judge in the Milwaukee district. Some years ago he was appointed by Grant as U. S. District Judge for the District of Columbia. He married for his second wife the widow of ex-Congressman Benjamin F. Hopkins, a most estimable woman.

E. D. Campbell, of La Crosse, the sixth, defeated Carl Schurz in the fall of 1857, on the occasion of Randall's first election. Mr. Campbell died at La Crosse in 1874.

Butler G. Noble was elected from Whitewater, in 1859. Mr. Noble was a fluent speaker, and well adapted to stump speaking, much of which he did during the campaign. He was a very good match for Geo. B. Smith, of Madison. These two gentlemen met at several points, and there never was any sleepy ones at their meetings. That was the first year the Republicans succeeded in electing their entire State ticket. Not long after the expiration of his term of office Mr. Noble returned to New York, in which State he is still a resident.

Edward Solomon, of Milwaukee, elected with Gov. L. P. Harvey, presided only one session, being called in 1862 to take the place made vacant by the untimely death of Gov. Harvey. And Wisconsin never had an abler or more honest Governor than Edward Solomon. Six or eight years ago he moved to New York, where he now ranks with the ablest lawyers of the metropolis. Gerry W. Hazleton, of Columbus, who was President of the Senate when the office of Lieutenant-Governor was vacated by Solomon, became Lieutenant-Governor. He has represented the Second District in Congress four years and is now United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin.

Wyman Spooner, of Elkhorn, acted as Lieutenant-Governor from the 14th of January, 1863, until the 31st of December, 1863. The fall of 1863 he was elected to the office, and was re-elected in 1865 and again in 1867, making his term of service seven years, or longer than any other man filled the office. He made a dignified presiding officer, and was highly respected by the Senators over whome he presided as well as by the people generally. He represented his district in the Assembly during the years 1859, '57 '61, and was elected to the Senate in 1865. He was at one time a Circuit Judge. He died last fall at a ripe old age.

Thad C. Pound, of Chippewa Falls, served during 1870 and '71, being elected with Fairchild on the occasion of his third election as Governor. A good many years ago Mr. Pound taught school in Illinois. Not far from twenty years ago he went to Chippewa Falls. During at least one winter after locating there he made a living by hauling wood to town, with a yoke of oxen. In 1864 he represented his district in the Assembly. He was also a member of the Assembly in 1866, 1867 and in 1869. He is now serving his first term in Congress.

Milton H. Pettit was elected from Kenosha, with Governor Washburn, and died about six months before the expiration of his term of service. He was for several years mayor of Kenosha, and in 1869, was elected Senator. Charles D. Parker, of Pleasant Valley, St. Croix county, has just closed his second term as Lieutenant Governor. He was a member of the Assembly in 1869, and again in 1870. He is the first Democratic Lieutenant Governor since the days of Campbell, who retired in 1859.

James M. Bingham, who entered upon his duties Jan. 1st, 1878, represented a Walworth county district in the Assembly two or three years, and was speaker in 1870. He once represented the Chippewa district in the Assembly. Six of the ex-Lieutenant-Governors are dead, as follows: Holmes, Beall, Burns, Campbell, Spooner and Pettit. McArthur, Solomon and Noble are not now residents of the State. Two of them became Governor—Solomon to fill vacancy caused by death, and Lewis, by election. Two of them have died while in office—Burns and Pettit. Two of them have served in Congress—Hazleton and Pound. Two of them were elected from Milwaukee, two from La Crosse, one from Taycheedah, two from Columbus, one from Jefferson, one from Elkhorn, two from Chippewa Falls, counting Bingham; one from Kenosha, one from Whitewater and one from Pleasant Valley. In only a few instances has the office been zealously sought.

QUIPS.

A Yankee editor, in a financial article says: "Money is close, but not close enough to reach."

The first hours of slumber are the sweetest. If ever a man sleeps the sleep of the just, it is when he's just asleep.

"Wring out the old," as the washerwoman said when she lifted an editor's shirt from the suds.—Worcester Press.

A Newburg goat the other day devoured an entire novel at one sitting. That's what you might call a regular swallow-tail goat.

It is suggested that parents be made financially responsible if their children venture upon thin ice. Their danger is liable to induce sympathetic persons to go to their rescue, and thus lives that are really valuable may be put in peril.

A red-haired lady, who was ambitious of literary distinction, found but a poor sale for her book. A gentleman, in speaking of her disappointment, said: "Her hair is red, if her book is not." An auditor, in attempting to relate the joke elsewhere, said: "She has red hair if her book hasn't."

It is now an acknowledged fact that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. It has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone, and in others by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

The old supposition that "Consumption is incurable," for many years deterred physicians from attempting to find a remedy for that disease and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without an effort being made to save them from a doom which was considered inevitable.

Dr. Schenck himself was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate: he was CURED by the aforesaid medicines and afterward enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years.—Thousands of people have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Schenck's Almanac, containing a thorough on Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, &c., can be had gratis of any druggist, or of J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia. Full directions for the use of Schenck's medicines accompany each package.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, Mandrake Pills are for sale by all druggists.

IMPORTANT LETTER

From a Distinguished Physician.

NO single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one or more and sometimes all yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored because but little understood by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won my hearty approval. I believe it likely to succeed when all the usual remedies fail, because it strikes at the root of the disease, viz., the acidified blood, while it heals the ulcerated membrane by direct application to the nasal passages. Its action is based on certain fixed rules, and unless the vital forces are too far exhausted, must, in the great majority of cases, effect a cure.

GEO. BEARD, M. D.
NORSCOTT BLOCK, So. FRAMINGHAM, Oct. 1, 1874.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

MAY safely claim to be one of the few popular remedies receiving the approval of medical gentlemen, who, in private, not only freely recommend it but use it in their families in preference to any of the preparations usually prescribed by physicians.

"You are aware," said a distinguished city physician, "that my obligations to the Mass. Medical Society are such that I cannot publicly recommend or prescribe the Radical Cure; but since I received so much relief from the use of it myself, after a thorough trial of the usual remedies, I have privately advised its use, and presume I have sent to your store no less than one hundred of my patients for it."

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION.

GENTLEMEN,—We have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year, and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have to learn the first complaint yet.

We are not in the habit of recommending patent medicines, but your preparation meets the wants of thousands, and we think those afflicted should be convinced of its great merit so that their suffering will be relieved. We have been in the drug business for the past twelve years constantly, and sold everything for Catarrh, but yours leads all the rest. If you see proper you can use this letter or any part of it that you wish.

Very truly yours, S. D. BALDWIN & CO.
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Drugs, Books and Stationery, Washington, Ind., Feb. 25, 1876.

Each package contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

An Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly Medicated Strengthening Plaster, forming the best Plaster for pains and aches in the World of Medicine.

ELECTRICITY

As a grand curative and restorative agent is not equalled by any element or medicine in the history of the healing art. Unless the vital spark has fled the body, restoration by means of electricity is possible. It is the last resort of all physicians and surgeons, and has rescued thousands, apparently dead, from an untimely grave, when no other human agency could have succeeded. This is the leading curative element in this Plaster.

BALSAM AND PINE.

The healing properties of our own fragrant balsam and pine and the gums of the East are too well known to require description. Their grateful, healing, soothing, and strengthening properties are known to thousands. When combined in accordance with late and important discoveries in pharmacy, their healing and strengthening properties are increased tenfold. In this respect our Plaster is the best in use without the aid of electricity.

TWO IN ONE.

Thus combined we have two grand medical agents in one, each of which performs its function and unitedly produce more cures than any liniment, lotion, wash, or plaster ever before compounded in the history of medicine. Try one. PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

GRANT.

How He Travels About Incognito—He Travels to See and not to be Seen.

Palermo Correspondence New York Herald.

The incognito of General Grant is one that no one will respect. He declines all honors and attentions, so far a he can do so without rudeness, and is especially indifferent to the parade and etiquette by which his journey is surrounded. It is amusing, knowing Gen. Grant's feelings on this subject, to read the articles in English and home papers about his craving for precedence and his fear lest he may not have the proper seat at table and the highest number of guns. Gen. Grant has declined every attention of an official character so far, except those whose non-acceptance would have been misconstrued. When he arrives at a port his habit is to go ashore with his wife and son, see what is to be seen and drift about from palace to picture gallery like any other wandering studions American doing Europe. Some times the officials are too prompt for him, but generally unless they call by appointment, they find the General absent. This matter is almost too trivial to write about, but there is no better business for a chronicler than to correct wrong impressions before creating new ones. Here, for instance, is an editorial article from an American newspaper which has drifted into our ward-room over these Mediterranean seas. The Journal is a responsible newspaper, with a wide circulation. It informs us that Gen. Grant travels with a princely retinue; that he is enabled to do so because the men who fattened on the corruptions of his Administrations gave him a share of their plunder. He went to the Hotel Bristol in Paris. He took the Prince of Wales' apartments. He never asks the cost of his rooms at hotels, but throws money about at a lavish hand. These are the statements which one reads here in the columns of an American journal. The truth is that Gen. Grant travels not like a prince, but as a private citizen. He has one servant and a courier. He never was in Prince of Wales' apartments in the Hotel Bristol in his life. His courier arranges for his hotel accommodations, as couriers always do, and the one who always does this office for the General takes pains to make as good bargains for his master as possible. So far from General Grant being a rich man, I think I am not breaking confidence when I say that the duration of his trip will depend altogether upon his income, and his income depends altogether upon the proceeds of his investment of the money presented to him at the close of the war. The Presidency yielded him nothing in the way of capital, and he has not now a dollar that came to him as an official. By this I mean that the money paid Gen. Grant as a soldier and as a President was spent by him in supporting the dignity of his office. Everybody knows how much money was given him at the close of the war. As this was all well invested and has grown, you may estimate the fortune of the General and about how long that fortune would enable him to travel like a Prince or a Tammany exile over Europe.

Revision of the Bible.

The New York Tribune.

The revision of the Bible was the subject treated yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Dr. Philip Schaff in the Church of the Covenant. After sketching the history of the translations of the Scriptures from the time of the earliest translators, the speaker reviewed the arguments in favor of a revision as follows:

The present English Bible is the outcome of half a dozen revisions, extending through three generations of church history; but the English language has changed, not as much as in earlier periods, yet enough to demand the attention of Bibical interpreters. The meanings of words have varied. In the phrase, "Take no thought for the morrow," "thought" means anxious care, as is proved by Shakspeare, who makes one of his characters die of "thought." "Prevent formerly meant to go between; it now means to hinder. "To let" sinified to withhold; now it means to permit. A revision, therefore, is necessary to prevent the common reader from misconstruing the language.

The tenses of the Greek and its propositions are often incorrectly rendered, and the definite article has often been used for the indefinite. Words of different meaning in the original are often translated in English by the same word. The original Bible only knows one devil, although many demons or evil spirits; but in the present version devil, demon, and evil spirits are badly mixed.

Recently, too, in 1859, a German scholar found the most perfect manuscript of the New Testament in existence in a convent, and recently, also, an excellent copy in the Pope's library became accessible to scholars. A better knowledge of Hebrew and Greek now prevails. The real values of Scriptural weights and measures are known.

In conclusion Dr. Schaff spoke briefly of the progress which has been made in work of revision in Germany and France, England and America. The verses and chapters are being arranged into paragraphs and proper divisions, and the sacred poetry, which fills one-third of the Bible, is taking a proper poetical form. Dr. Schaff expresses the hope that within three or four years the work will be finished. The English work will be subjected to English scrutiny. By means it is hoped that a Bible acceptable to English-speaking people will be obtained.

No Party To-Night.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

They met by chance, not in the usual way, for Aunt Hannah and Mary Simpson seldom came in contact. Last evening the former, with a basket heavily charged with charcoal, bumped against Mary. It was at the intersection of Floyd and Green streets, near the home of the old lady, who relieved herself of her burden and said:

"La, chile, whar, am ye gwine?"

"To de play party."

"Whar?"

"At Brodder Williams' house."

"Say, am yer tellin' de true story, chile? Is Bill Williams gwine to give a play party to-night?"

"Why, ob course."

"Well, it don't come off unless I'm thar. I ain't invited, but I expected dat Brodder Williams would be surprised to see me. Say, chile, I think that play party will be put off?"

"What's that, aunty?"

"Nothin' much; you go home, chile; dat play party is gwine to be postponed."

"Why?"

"Do ye see dis coal," said the elder party, pointing to her basket. "I jes got dat to iron off Bill Williams' shirts. He said he was gwine to Frankfort in de mornin' and needed 'em. La! he owes me over $1.10 now for washin', an' he hasn't got a shirt to put on. How's he gwine to do a big thing at a play party widout a shirt? He can't, an' Aunt Hannah aint gwine to let him. I'm a talkin'; you hear me, chile?"

The old lady picked up her basket again and trudged homeward, muttering:

"Play party, indeed! He'd better pay me for cleanin' dem clothes he wore in de workhouse. Well, dere aint no play party to-night if Aunt Hannah am awake."

Somebody must have been awake, for certainly there was no "play party" at the house of William Williams last night. A number of colored folks were disappointed, who can receive a morsal of satisfaction by consulting Aunt Hannah. She still insists that no "play party" will ever occur at the Williams mansion unless she has an invitation, as well as a dollar or so besides.

VEGETINE.

An Excellent Medicine.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 16, 1877.

This is to certify that I have used VEGETINE, manufactured by H. R. Stevens, Boston, Mass., for Rheumatism and General Prostration of the Nervous System, with good success. I recommend VEGETINE as an excellent medicine for such complaints. Yours very truly,

C. W. VANDEGRIFT.

Our Minister's Wife.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Feb. 16, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—Three years ago I was suffering terribly with Inflammatory Rheumatism. Our minister's wife advised me to take VEGETINE. After taking one bottle, I was entirely relieved. This year, feeling a return of the disease, I again commenced taking it, and am being benefitted greatly. It also greatly improves my digestion.

Respectfully,
MRS. A. BALLARD.
1011 West Jefferson Street.

Safe and Sure.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.

In 1874 your VEGETINE was recommended to me; and, yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give VEGETINE my most unqualified indorsement as being a safe, sure, and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. VEGETINE is the only medicine I use, and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.

Yours truly, W. H. CLARK,
120 Monterey Street, Alleghany, Pa.

VEGETINE

The following letter from Rev. G. W. Mansfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, must convince every one who reads his letter of the wonderful curative qualities of Vegetine as a thorough cleanser and purifier of the blood.

HYDE PARK, MASS., Feb. 15, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir,—About ten years ago my health failed through the depleting effects of dyspepsia; nearly a year later I was attacked by typhoid fever in its worst form. It settled in my back, and took the form of a large deep-seated abscess, which was fifteen months in gathering. I had two surgical operations by the best skill in the state, but received no permanent cure. I suffered great pain at times, and was constantly weakened by a profuse discharge. I also lost small pieces of bone at different times.

Matters ran on thus about seven years, till May, 1874, when a friend recommended me to go to your office, and talk with you of the virtue of Vegetine. I did so, and by your kindness passed through your manufactory, noting the ingredients, &c., by which your remedy is produced.

By what I saw and heard I gained some confidence in Vegetine.

I commenced taking it soon after, but felt worse from its effects; still I persevered, and soon felt it was benefitting me in other respects. Yet I did not see the results I desired till I had taken it faithfully for a little more than a year, when the difficulty in the back was cured; and for nine months I have enjoyed the best of health.

I have in that time gained twenty-five pounds of flesh, being heavier than ever before in my life, and I was never more able to perform labor than now.

During the past few weeks I had a scrofulous swelling as large as my fist gather on another part of my body.

I took Vegetine faithfully, and it removed it level with the surface in a month. I think I should have been cured of my main trouble sooner if I had taken larger doses, after having become accustomed to its effects.

Let your patrons troubled with scrofula or kidney disease understand that it takes time to cure chronic diseases; and, if they will take Vegetine patiently, it will, in my judgment, cure them.

With great obligations, I am
Yours very truly,

New York Mercury

FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

For forty years the New York Mercury has been before the public—a welcome guest throughout the length and breadth of the land. The Pioneer of Weekly Journalism, it has kept pace with the march of Improvement and Progress. As in the Past so in the Future, it proposes to retain its rank as the LEADING LITERARY, FAMILY AND MISCELLANEOUS JOURNAL OF THE AGE.

Originality is a Prominent Feature, especially in its Literary Columns. Its Serial Stories are by the Best Authors, its extensive list of contributors embracing the names of the most celebrated AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN WRITERS OF FICTION.

The Mercury has achieved a National Reputation for its Sketches of Romance and Real Life, a field in which it has no rival. Another specialty is its

TABLE-TALK DEPARTMENT.

In which appears regularly the "best thoughts of the best minds," overflowing with diverting anecdotes, vivacious poetry, and quaint conceits.

THE HOME CIRCLE.

While the Ladies are also always sure to find in the Mercury articles of living interest to the sex. Children are catered to in a manner designed to instruct as well as amuse.

A RECORD OF PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

The Mercury gives every item of public or personal importance in the Theatrical, Musical, Arenic and Variety World. Its correspondents, who cover both Hemispheres—ever faithful and industrious—contribute regularly a full, comprehensive, and reliable budget of information superior in accuracy and scope to that of any journal published.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

The Mercury is the only recognized favorite of the Volunteer and Paid Fire Departments of the Union and Canada, affording, as it does promptly and exhaustively, all attainable facts and gossip. During the Season of Out-door Sports many columns are devoted to the favorite game of Baseball. Its reports of games, and its tabular records of plays and players, are the best published. THE NEWS AND GENERAL DEPARTMENT. Always embrace special articles on timely and interesting topics; editorials, condensed news-items, humorous paragraphs, etc., etc.

Altogether, in point of variety, quantity and quality, The Few York Mercury is unsurpassed by any Journal in the World.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The New York Mercury, with its fifty-six columns of sterling, original matter, will continue to be issued at Eight Cents a copy, and sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To mail-subscribers our terms for 1878 will be (cash in advance):—Single copies (postage paid), Three Dollars per Annum.

Write plainly the name of post-office, county, and State. Specimen copies sent free to all applicants. Address WILLIAM CAULDWELL, Proprietor of the New York Mercury, No 128 Fulton street, New York City.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1878.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—More winter-like.

—Where are all the wedding parties?

—Just two weeks in which to get the valentines ready.

—The freight trains are lengthening out, and business is on the increase.

—Strangers complain because the names of the streets are not posted up for their guidance.

—The dame of fashion now takes off her iron pot and puts her eye on pottery. It's all the go.

—Good-bye, January. Ta-ta, old boy. Come again next year, but don't forget your snowshoes and ulster.

—A prominent attorney should have been mentioned also among the charter members of the Angle-Worm Club.

—One of the female suffragists of the city complains because the law makes it a more serious offense to rob a mail than a female.

—Mr. D. Davies, whose illness was noted in yesterday's Gazette, is still failing gradually, and there is scarcely any hope of his recovery.

—If variety is the spice of life, Janesville bids fair to be highly flavored, if not highly favored. A new variety place is soon to be started.

—All who desire to attend the second term of Prof. Sevatence's dancing school should hand in their names on or before February 11th.

—Some of the music lovers propose to bring their persuasive powers on Gilmore, to induce him to place upon the programme the Artist's Life, a waltz by Strauss, which is generally admired.

—The Circuit Court is still busying itself with the Clinton mill suit, the evidence for the plaintiff having just been concluded. The case is being ground out as slow as though it was in the mills of the gods.

—Anderson's band are booked to go to Monroe two weeks from to-morrow to attend to the wants of a select phantom party to be given at Chenoweh's hall by the club bearing the mysterious title of "M. B. T. Club."

—A team belonging to Mr. Putnam took a run down Milwaukee street yesterday afternoon scattering some swill barrels right and left and landing one against the glass of a lamp-post. A broken spring was the only other injurious effect of the fast speed.

—Business is rushing at the cotton factory. In order to keep up with the orders for goods, work begins now at six o'clock in the morning, a half hour earlier than before, and noonings and other usual spells of leisure are made as brief as possible. Cotton is the boss king.

—A goodly sized crowd gathered at the corner of Main and Court streets last evening, to witness an experiment made on so-called fire-proof and water-proof paint, a bonfire being the tester. Strange to say the sight of the blaze did not cause a false fire alarm to be sounded.

—Dr. S. S. Judd left early yesterday morning for the East and from thence to proceed on his three month's trip to the West Indies and South America. During his absence his partner Dr. Sanborn will attend to his practice, and can be found at the old place over Heimstreet's drug store, on Main street.

—The ice-men are discouraged at the prospect of winter helping them any more in their business, and, have concluded to gather ice while the sun shines. They are accordingly cutting and packing such frozen water as they can get hold of, so as to be sure of having something of a supply, so that if February gives them the go-by, they will not be wholly out of stock. It is still hoped, however, that another will bring a good freeze. The present cutting shows about eight inches thick.

—Dr. Horne rises to explain his bill presented to the Council, for securing the burial of two large dead dogs and a ditto hog. He says the deceased were not on his premises, but that the ditto hog lay against the post by the county jail, and ought therefore to be buried at the expense of the authorities. The large dead dogs were anchored with rocks just below the lower bridge, and they too were fit subjects for burial at public expense. The Doctor also says that he used every lawful effort to get the proper authorities to remove the nuisances, but the matter was neglected, until upon the suggestion of the Mayor, he secured the performance of the burial service. Now let the two large dead dogs and ditto hog, r. i. p.

THE WEATHER.

The mercury at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 34 degrees above and at 2 o'clock at 32 degrees above. Cloudy. A slight fall of snow last night. One year ago to-day the thermometer at corresponding hours indicated 39 degrees and 44 degrees above. To-day's indications are, warmer, partly cloudy, with snow, winds mostly from the southeast and falling barometer.

JOINT CONVENTION.

The joint convention of the Agricultural and Horticultural Societies will be held at Madison on the 5th to 8th of February. Among the papers to be presented are several from Rock county writers including: "Economy of Stock Raising," by Wm. Horne, V. S.; "Relation of Soil to Tree and Fruit Growing," by J. C. Plumb, Milton; "Farm Buildings, their Comfort and Convenience," by B. S. Hoxie, Cooksville; "Some Things I Have not Done," by G. J. Kellogg, Janesville; Summer Flowers and Fruits for the Garden (for families and not for market) by F. S. Lawrence, Janesville; address by Clinton Babbitt, Beloit.

A COLD WATER TALK.

Sergt. Childers has been talking to the Shopiere folks on the temperance question. A private letter from one of the pastors of that place says of the lecture:

Sergt. Childers spoke to us last evening on temperance. He has a thrilling story of a drinker's life and escape from the thraldom of alcohol, an impressive and forceable way of telling it, and an earnestness such as none but those who have stood on the brink of conscious ruin can have. For an hour and a half he held the attention of all, old and young, and I can but believe impressions were made that will endure and be of lasting good to those who heard him. Our people were both entertained and interested.

I wish he could have the ear of the drinking men of Janesville and of the young men of the whole State.

CHRISTIAN YOUNG MEN.

A very interesting meeting was held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening. Miss M. A. Scoval. of Monroe, was present and favored the audience with a twenty-minute talk on "Prayer." With a good voice and attractive manner, she held the attention of her auditors, and added particular interest to her address by a narration of her personal experience. She told her story of how she met with an accident, by a misstep in descending a flight of stairs, and how the fall caused an injury of the spine which rendered her an invalid for over two years. Medical aid seeming to fail in affording relief, she sought strength by prayers, which prayers were answered and she was restored to health. The narration savored of the miraculous, but her manner and speech was a convincing proof that she at least, believed that prayer alone had accomplished it. Her address was closely listened to, and was of more than usual merit. The same lady will speak next Sunday morning and evening at the same rooms, and all are cordially invited to hear her.

The business portion of the meeting resulted in the election of Mr. J. A. Cunningham, as Vice President of the association to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Geo. W. Webb, who has removed from the city, and Mr. John Spong as Director, in place of Mr. Frank Pease, who is pursuing his theological studies at Evanston, Ill., and therefore necessarily absent from the city.

THE BOSS CONCERT.

Gilmore's band will cause the Baptist church to sound and resound with music to-morrow evening. To most of the citizens of Janesville and vicinity this will be the first, last and only opportunity they will ever have of this kind. Gilmore as a leader is probably aswidely known as any living man, and he has gathered about him some wonderful soloists and a most thoroughly artistic support of about fifty pieces. Miss Juliet Fenderson, though comparitively unknown in the West particularly seems to be bounding by high leaps to the highest rank among the songstresses, and has been greeted most enthusiastically wherever she has appeared. The other soloists are: B. C. Bent, cornet; E. A. Lefebre, saxophone; F. Bracht, flute; Carl Kegel, clarionet. The concert will be under the personal direction of Mr. Gilmore. The programme differs somewhat from that presented by the famous Thomas, it embracing a more popular style of music, the public generally seeming to prefer to have fewer of the strictly classical pieces than are presented by Thomas. The sale of seats is going forward at a rapid rate, and there is no doubt but there will be one of the largest audiences ever gathered at a concert in this city, there being many from the adjoining towns, who propose to attend, in addition to the many citizens of the city itself.

SOCIAL DOINGS.

By a slip of the pencil-point an error crept into the announcement of the First Methodist social last evening. Ye local had hardly crossed the threshold of the sanctum on his way homeward before he was saluted by a kind hearted friend who run half-a-mile or more and who came up puffing and gasping "Say, how did you make that mistake about the social and"—He was suddenly interrupted by another who came up on a like errand. Slipping by them ye local struck down the stairs and out into the street only to run upon a half-dozen more stationed at convenient distances, each of whom felt it his bounden duty to unbosom the fact that a slight error had crept into the columns. Strangest of all, none of the said infoamants were immediately connected with the church under whose auspices the social was held. It was purely out of a philanthropic desire that the reliability of the Gazette should in no way be weakened. It is gratifying to know that the Gazette is so thoroughly read and its statements so thoughtfully pondered upon. It is also gratifying that so many take such a kindly interest in pointing out any possible mistake which, of course, is liable to creep into the best regulated columns. Nevertheless, it would be much more gratifying if the same zeal was shown in furnishing the Gazette with reliable and particularized items of news. It is much more gratifying to have a fellow running and puffing into the office with a lively sensation or a blood curdling tragedy. In the absence of such news a runaway or a street brawl is acceptable. The general mode of procedure however is to let the local hunt up the news as best he can and then hurry around to post him up when it is everlastingly too late.

The social however took place. It was a success. Rev. Thos. Clithro's residence was filled up to overflowing, and mirth and merriment prevalled, sandwiched with cosy and sensible little corner-chats among the more sedate and sober ones. The house was so arranged that the younger portion of the society had a chance to indulge in their games without feeling the restraint of being closely eyed by stern parents and strangers, so that all classes in attendance were provided with entertainments most suited to their tastes. Much of the credit of the enjoyability of the evening was due to the pastor and his wife, and to Miss Battle who favored the company with some fine instrumental music.

Mr. and Mrs. Withington entertained about half a hundred of their friends in the parlors of their beautiful residence on High street last evening. The gathering was similar to many that have been held here this winter, it taking the character of an informal tea-party. It was the occasion of many complimentary comments to-day among those who were of the happy number.

A REQUEST.

To the Editor:

We must have in our city, without any doubt, classical, cultured scholars, some of whom are probably well versed in linguistic lore. I therefore request that some one of these persons, who may feel competent to do so, from his knowledge of the New Testament Greek, will give to the public, through the columns of the Daily Gazette, over his own proper signature, the simple primary, root meaning of Kolasin which is translated in Matt. 24:46, by the word "punishment." This request is made by one who, in his search after truth, professes to be a thoughtful, candid,

INQUIRER.

Scriptural Authority.

"In the early ages of the world perfumes were constantly used, and they have the high sanction of scriptural authority." The patrons of perfumes at all times have been the most polished people in the world, and in this age no refined lady or gentleman considers their toilet complete without the use of some delightful scent like Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, which are really the gems of all odors.

The Antecedents of Disease.

Among the antecedents of disease are inertness in the circulation of the blood, an unnaturally attenuated condition of the physique, indicating that the life current is deficient in nutritive properties, a wan, haggard look, inability to digest the food, loss of appetite, sleep and strength, and a sensation of unnatural languor. All these may be regarded as among the indicia of approaching disease, which will eventually attack the system and overwhelm it, if it is not built up and fortified in advance. Invigorate, then, without loss of time, making choice of the greatest vitalizing agent extant, Bostetter's Stomach Bitters, an elixir which has given health and vigor to myriads of the sick and debilitated, which is avouched by physicians and analysts to be pure as well as effective, which is immensely popular in this country, and extensively used abroad, and which has been for years one of the leading medicinal staples of America. jan28deodawlw

For the Hair.

Nothing bespeaks the true lady or gentleman more forcibly than a neat, well arranged, glossy arranged head of hair. While many are more favored by nature than others, all may have fine-appearing hair by a little care and attention. For a dressing nothing has yet been found to equal the oil of cocoanut, when properly mixed with one or two other ingredients. It is at once cooling, soothing and penetrating. Brazilian Cocoa Cream possesses these qualities, and is undoubtedly the dressing for the hair. For a wash for the head and scalp, as well as for the skin, Brazilian Estregador is recommended. Sold by Croft & Sherer, H. C. Stearns, A. J. Roberts. jan28d1w

German Syrup.

No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities as Boschee's German Syrup. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine were distributed free of charge by druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that German Syrup will cure them. The result has been that druggists in every town and village in the United States are recommending it to their customers. Go to your druggist, and ask what thay know about it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case. decldeod-weow6m

Our Changeful Climate

Makes a reliable remedy for Throat and Lung Disorders necessary in every household. Parker's Ginger Tonic is just the medicine needed. It radically cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, and even Consumption, if used in time, by its powerful specific action on the Stomach, Kidneys, Skin, Liver, and mucous surfaces of the Throat and Lungs. In this natural way it cleanses the waste matters from the blood, builds up the tissues, fortifies the system against further attacks, and permanently allays inflammations of the Throat, Lungs, and other organs. It cures Dyspepsia, and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Wakefulness, Acid Stomach, Costiveness, Liver Complaints, Coated Tongue, Low Spirits, Rheumatic Pains, etc., and gives comfort after a hearty meal. Buy a $1.00 bottle from your druggist, A. J. Roberts, Janesville, Wis., or a sample bottle at 15 cts., and test its extraordinary merits. jan2deow-22weowtapr2

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, January 30

The markets were fairly active to-day, and prices were strong

Wheat—The market on spring wheat notwithstanding the feeling in this cereal continues nervous and unhealthy, the present tendency of the movement is somewhat bullish. On yesterday, under the influence of smaller receipts, a decline in the London quotation for English consols, and rather warlike news from Europe, the market exhibited more than an ordinary amount of strength, Prices were, perhaps, a little too irregular to suit, yet sellers were in a measure masters of the trade, and the day's changes resulted in an actual advance of ½c. Business was quite active, and in speculative circles the trading was at times really brisk, the upward tendency exhibited having increased the short demand to an unusual extent. The inquiry on legitimate account was also improved, and holders of gilt-edged receipts found a ready market, Cash No 2 closed at 1 04½ for gilt-edge, and 1 03¾ for regular receipts
